Acceptance to YNA Shana Bet Program

Acceptance to the Shana Bet program will be finalized only when the YNA financial office has sent out a written verification of tuition via email.

Thank you for your kind understanding in taking care of these matters in a timely manner. Please keep a copy of this document for your records.

Yeshiva University Joint Program Students

It is your responsibility to inform the YU office as to your whereabouts. Please contact the admissions office to make sure that they know when you will be joining them on their US campus.

A COPY of your financial clearance form will allow you to register for classes at YU and obtain your academic credits upon your departure from YNA. It is your responsibility to request that your transcript be sent to YU. Please email Mrs. Dina Roness at dina@yna.edu. or fill out the TRF (Transcript Request Form) on line.

Medical Insurance

The tuition fee includes enrollment in our insurance program. Many US insurance companies require proof that the student is participating in an academic program abroad in order to continue coverage past age 18. This may be obtained by emailing Mrs. Dina Roness at dina@yna.edu .
